Alberta Equestrian Vaulting Association

HISTORY:

The Alberta Equestrian vaulting Association was created as a non-profit society in 2004 with three founding member clubs; Meadow Creek- Olds, Spruce Valley- Rocky Mountain House & Big Rock- Dewinton. Fifteen years of growth later, there are seven clubs in Alberta, all of which are active and competitive.

Each year the AEVA hosts a minimum of two competitions, one in the late spring or early summer, and the Provincial Championships in August/September. Biannually the AEVA hosts the VaultCanada National Championships in even years.

RECENT EVENTS:

January 25 2019
AEVA Awards Banquet

The AEVA Banquet was held at the Applecreek Golf Course in Airdrie. Representatives from all 7 Alberta we in attendance. A supper was served and Provincial, High Point and Zone Awards were announced. Following awards were slideshows of the 2018 year presented by each club. A photo booth and dance concluded the event.

January 26-27 2019
AEVA Clinic & AGM

*"The AEVA clinic weekend was an absolute blast! Thank you to all the athletes for working so hard, and trying all the new things that were presented to them. I look forward to working with all of you again.
~Ava Mabel~
@prettymuchava"*

Also held at the Applecreek Gold Course, vaulters were placed into 6 groups according to vaulter level. They then worked through 5 stations each day. Anthony Bro-Petit from France was the main clinician; as well as Ava Cochlan/Elliot Fudge-hand balancing/flexibility, Roxy Wright- Mental Strength & Competitive Mindset, Teagan Williams- Horsekeeping/Stable Management, Phil- PJ Performance Training-

February 4-5 2019
AEVA Casino

The AEVA had our casino fundraiser at the Elbow River Casino where 29 volunteers filled 40 positions over 6 shifts for the two days.
Message from the Casino Chair, Joanna Head
" First of all I want to say a HUGE THANK-YOU to each and every one of you for making our first casino event a success. Our advisors said we were a dream to work with several times over the weeked. They really appreciated that everyone showed up early for their shifts and were very competent. "
